

CUB SCOUT PACK 801

CUBMASTER'S

Column

Tonight we come together to celebrate the birthday of Scouting. Without the events that occurred in February in 1910, we would not be here tonight. It's not only a time for celebration, but also a time of reflection.

Tonight's dinner slideshow captures many of the fun moments the Pack has had this past year. Moments that are filled with fun, silliness, community service, and learning.

Tonight also is a night to celebrate the hard work of our Arrow of Light Scouts as they move out of the Pack into an even greater journey and join our local Scouting America Troops. All of the work they have completed leading up to this evening has given them the skills to continue growing and learning as they participate in many more fun and adventurous experiences. Please make sure you wish them well on their next adventures.

I also want to recognize the hard work of all of Pack 801's adult volunteers. Without you, it would not be possible to offer our Cub Scouts the fun learning opportunities and events to help them as they advance and to deliver a quality program. Thank you all for supporting Scouting.

Cubmaster Joy

The Pack 801 Lion has enjoyed running with the Wolf den learning important skills about food groups, eating healthy, washing hands, and brushing teeth. He has enjoyed sharing food with the Wolves and together they created a community out of Legos including an amazing children's museum.

TIGER

The Wolf den has spent the start of the new year participating in the Pinewood derby and working on the council fire requirements. We have also spent time talking about our individual family religious practices and how we demonstrate reverence to God.

WEBELO

Our Webelos have been busy working on the My Safety Adventure! They learned how to stay safe in everyday situations. One of the highlights was playing Kim's Game, where scouts tested their memory and awareness by spotting dangerous household items and situations—turns out, safety can be fun! They also practiced labeling household hazards, helping them recognize risks and take steps to prevent accidents.

Webelo Den Leaders

The Bears kicked off February with a refreshing winter hike. We began working on our next requirement, focusing on outdoor protective gear and learning about landforms shaped by glaciers. We'll wrap up the month by completing the second half of the 'Standing Tall' requirement, exploring additional ways to stay safe. It's been a nice mix of learning and adventure for our group.

Bear Den Leaders

BEAR

ARROW of light

At their final den meeting as Cub Scouts, the AoL patrol piloted the board game "Don't Launch a Nuke...Straight Up" which they had designed for the Engineering adventure. Henry built the playing board, Caleb built the playing pieces, and Eli designed the playing cards. They played the game twice, and it was mentioned as one of the highlights of the year when they reflected on their Cub Scouting journey.

Other highlights include camp outs, the sleepover at the Rockford Discovery Center, visit to the UW Geology Museum, and cooking hamburgers on a grill.
